

VETERAN'S THIRD WIFE GETS HELP OF FOURTH IN A CHARGE OF BIGAMY

John Ochs, 74, Who Fought at Antietam, Is Veteran of Another Kind.

The cosmopolitan romance of John Ochs, seventy-four years old, a veteran of the civil war, resulted in his arrest to-day at his home, No. 65 East One Hundred and Fifty-fourth street, charged with bigamy. Two of his wives confronted him in the Morrisania police station, and the aged Romeo was unable to explain away their accusation.

According to Capt. Price, the old soldier's romance began while he was serving as the bugler of Troop G, Second Regiment, New York Volunteer Cavalry, in the Army of the Potomac. It was just after the battle of Antietam that Ochs met and fell in love with Sarah Mason, a Virginia beauty. After the war she came to New York and married him.

After her death Ochs went to visit his old Division Commander, Major-General Walker, at Newburgh, N. Y., where Capt. Price declared, he became acquainted with the General's servant maid, Harriet, a young mulatto, and married her. They lived together only a few years and Ochs went to the Soldiers' Home at Dayton, O.

In 1888 Ochs returned to New York and the following year wedded and won Mrs. Rosina Schaefer, a widow with four children. They were married and lived together until four years ago, when Ochs, the police say, deserted her. In April of this year he took Mrs. Martha Schielekorn to the City Hall and had Alderman Smith perform a marriage ceremony.

Wife No. 3 got wind of the affair and trailed Ochs to his home. She engaged Wife No. 4 in earnest conversation and the two departed arm in arm for the police. Ochs will be arraigned in the First District Court, The Bronx, to-morrow morning.

KILLS WIFE IN JEALOUS RAGE

Children See Mother Slain by Father, Who Shoots Himself.

WHEELING, W. Va., Aug. 18.—Franklin Ochs, 38, who had been reported missing for several days, was found dead at the breakfast table in their home at Martins Ferry, across the Ohio River from here.

Chief of Police Hyland, who lived next door, heard the shots and forced the door to the Marshall house. Marshall fled to the attic and Hyland summoned other policemen, who surrounded the house. Finding escape out of Marshall threw out his brains. Mrs. Marshall was killed in the presence of four of her children.

Some Apple. (From the Capital City, N.Y.) The biggest apple ever grown near here, perhaps, was brought in a few days ago by J. C. Meredith, and was grown on his place about two miles northwest of town. The sample he brought in weighs one and a half pounds and measures, in circumference, 14-15 by 10-14 inches.

LONE BULLET LANDS IN MAN'S BREAST WHEN "NICK" PULLS TRIGGER

Wound Proves Slight, but Breinslein Is Held for Carrying Concealed Weapons.

Abraham Breinslein, thirty, an elevator man in the Germania Hotel, No. 11 Bowery, walked into a drug store at Chrystie and Stanton streets this afternoon, opened his waistcoat and exhibited a blood stain on his shirt. He said he had just been shot.

While the frightened drug clerk was calling a policeman and the policeman an ambulance from Gouverneur Hospital, Breinslein told this story: He was down on his luck, he said, and his assets were reduced to an old revolver. This he took to the Tunnel saloon at Livingston street and the Bowery and offered for sale for fifteen cents. He made the price low because he needed the money and supposed the weapon was unloaded.

A stranger whom Breinslein knew only as "Nick" showed an interest in the proposition and began snapping the trigger of the revolver. It proved that there was one cartridge left in it and Breinslein caught that in his right breast. "Nick" incontinently beat it. At the hospital they are holding Breinslein for a violation of the Sullivan law.

DOCTOR SAYS "APHASIA" VICTIM WAS MURDERED.

Coroner's Medical Adviser Expresses Surprise at Hospital Diagnosis in William Cornell's Case.

Coroner's Physician McAllister announced to-day as the result of an autopsy that William Cornell of No. 100 Bleeker street, who staggered into Bellevue Hospital on Aug. 8 and died two days later, had probably been the victim of a homicidal attack. The autopsy revealed a fracture of the skull from ear to ear, which must have been caused by a terrific blow.

The Coroner's Physician expressed surprise that the surgeons at the hospital had not discovered the cause of the skull fracture. When such an injury to the skull had been received. When the wounded man came to the hospital he was scarcely able to give his name and address before he lapsed into a confused state of mind and his malady was set down as aphasia.

Because of the patient's incoherence no hint of how he came by the blow was given and there is absolutely no clue to his assailant.

BABY'S AWFUL ECZEMA CURED

Face Just a Sore. Scratched Till It Bled. Resinol Stopped Itching Almost Instantly. Soon Well.

May 30, 1913.—"My baby's face broke out with eczema. We tried many prescriptions, ointments and lotions, but the baby's face kept getting worse all the time. He would scratch it until it would bleed, and finally his face on both sides was just an awful sore. It bothered him so much that he could not sleep much at night. I sent for sample of Resinol Soap and Resinol Ointment and used them according to directions. The result was something wonderful. The itching stopped almost instantly, and from the first application we could see a marked improvement. I then bought a fifty-cent jar of Resinol Ointment and a cake of Resinol Soap, and by the time the jar of Ointment was used the baby's face was almost entirely cured, so I bought another jar and used only half of it, and the cure was complete. My doctor recommends Resinol very highly, and I cannot say too much for Resinol Soap and Resinol Ointment." Signed S. L. Carter, Salem, Va.

Physicians have prescribed Resinol for eighteen years and every druggist in the country sells Resinol Soap and Resinol Ointment. For sample, write to Dept. B-R, Resinol, Baltimore, Md.
